WIWG CONFERENCE CADET GUIDELINES

- First and foremost, Cadets are welcome and strongly encouraged to attend Wing Conference! This is a great activity and this year's activities will be both fun and interesting.
- Cadet registration forms must be signed by both a parent and the Senior Member/Officer accepting responsibility for the cadet (regardless of age).
- Cadets will coordinate all room reservations through their Senior Member chaperone, who will accept responsibility for them. Cadets will not make room reservations. Cadets (regardless of age) of opposite gender will not sleep/stay in the same hotel room or suite. Cadets may not sleep in the same room as Senior Members with the exception of child/parent relationships.
- Senior Member chaperones accepting responsibility for cadets will provide supervision for their cadets.
- Senior Member chaperones should keep a copy of the parent-signed registration form. Senior Member chaperones should make and coordinate the room reservation for their cadets.
- Senior Member chaperones will know what rooms their cadets are in. Senior Members chaperoning cadets should restrict access to all Pay Per View movies available to the rooms that cadets are staying in.
- Wing Conference is an official CAP activity, as such all CAP members will follow CAP rules and regulations.
